

Luna teams up with Candice

Luna was deep into her book at the library, occasionally thinking about her proud moment of when she owned Hanna at the fencing club. She was just about to hit the next chapter when she noticed in the corner of her eye that the blonde bookworm Candice came into the library. She grinned to herself, recognizing the usual victim of the school.

But last week, Candice's main tormentor had been the victim for the first time, at Luna's own hands. Luna felt good, and obviously Candice felt good too. She was smiling as Candice's hazel eyes locked with hers. She skipped over to Luna in the back of the library.

"Yes!! There she is!" she explained to herself, as she walked with short, quick steps towards her newest heroine. Her saviour!

Luna looked up from her book without moving another muscle than just her eyes. Candice looked back at Luna enthusiastically, almost bouncing with joy.

"Hi!" Candice enthusiastically voiced, giving a short wave of her hand. It was like meeting a celebrity for the first time.

Luna looked back at the greeting Candice without saying a word. Her mouth moved some, into a small grin.

"Hi so uhmm... I w-wanted to thank you for today! You uhm... You were amazing!"

The smiling Candice almost shook with enthusiasm still, as she uttered her words. Still with no response. All she got back was a Luna who lowered her book and looked more directly at her, grinning even more.

A few seconds of silence were broken by Candice again.

"I was thinking that, you know.... team up together. You and I?"

Candice smiled. Luna kept her eyes on her.

"To... you know...to get back at those bullies?"

Another few moments of silence. Luna kept looking at Candice as she put her book on the table, still grinning a bit, as she readied up to speak.

"Turn around my dear. There's something behind you..."

"Oh? What is it?" Candice said as she turned around. This was all Luna needed.

Luna grabbed Candice's red sweatpants from behind, and yanked them down her thighs. Then before Candice could do anything about it except yelping, the panties went down as well, exposing her giant globes.

"HUH!? My panties!" Candice exclaimed as she had her entire bare crotch on display to the library for two seconds, before her hands shot to cover it up as Luna kept one hand to keep her pants and panties down.

The other hand went to town on Candice's cheeks.

"Listen, honey..."

SMACK! A whirlwind of swats across Candice's bubblebutt came faster than a machine gun. Candice couldn't even process it, they were coming so fast!

"Ah! Ah! No!" Candice couldn't even get words out as Luna's hand delivered rapid speed, striking slaps on to Candice's bottom in a merciless, breakneck rhythm. Candice's head bobbed with each strike; her glasses bouncing up and down with her. Her boobs jiggling wildly between her arms.

Luna spoke again as Candice's red face tightened up with each smack on her naked behind.

"I didn't do it for you, you tart. I did it because I love doing those things!"

"I ah! Under ah!...stand ah!" Candice said as she realized that she wasn't the reason for Luna's decision to strike during the fencing class.

Luna continued whirling out vigorous blows that cascaded erratically across Candice's bottom. Candice whimpered, and bobbed wildly, throwing her glasses. Her legs were becoming weak from her buttocks jiggling after each smack, this is nowhere close the spankings that she got from Emma or Hanna. Candice couldn't believe how the swats kept coming and coming, spank after spank. Just when she thought it was all at its worse, people started to notice Candice in her embarrassing position. Everyone kept quiet, but snickers and whispers were seen watching Candice covering herself but the new girl causing her bubble butt to wobble.

Finally, the end came with one last, pinch to Candice's thoroughly chastised bubble butt. Candice let out a deep breath, her legs wobbling from the experience. Who IS this girl?

"But this is nothing personal against you, my dear!" Luna said as kind of a comfort to Candice, who understood that she would have to not cross Luna's path. Candice exhausted from her punishment, fell to all fours, collapsing with her ass in the air and boobs on the library carpet, her naked bubble butt wobbling in defeat. Sweatpants and panties around her knees, sweating all over, she had a faint smile, she knew that at least Luna won't prank her like the others, but teaming up probably won't be an option. Just don't offend the queen.

"But your bullies should know... The bigger fish has arrived."
